

Guest Book

Congratulations on your new book. I'm looking forward to reading it. ~Paula Oneal

Congratulations you two!! ~Velma Bragg

I have spent a few days wandering around this website and having so much fun. The music is great, and I discovered that if I click on any picture on the wall it will take me to the website of either a state park or information about waterfalls, etc. I love the kitten on the rug and the granny glasses resting on some books. The first volume of poetry is a treasure. The book is beautiful and would make a great gift for mother's day, father's day, or graduation. The poems are well-written and thought-provoking. I'm enjoying reading poems about Union County, GA written by a local poet who is extremely talented. I haven't finished the book yet, but my favorite poem so far is The Broken Butterfly. Usually I underline things, fold back pages, and write in margins. However, this book is special and will remain unmarked even when read over and over again. ~LaVerne Ombadykow

I am so enjoying your new book. Impressive from the cover to the contents of the book. Such a gift from God to all who read it!! ~Nancy Triestram

Hi, Kate!!! I think of you often and return to some of your work when you were one of my students. I am beyond proud of you!!!! ~Dianne Kinard

Hi Kate! Your dad, my cousin, shared some of your poems in his Christmas newsletter. I enjoyed them, especially "In Passing." Keep on a-writing. ~Nick Reitter

Love your books and your website! Book review to come soon. Love you both! ~Barbara Drake

You have made your corner of the World Wide Web a lovely little bookshop, and I look forward to returning soon! ~Veronique

I'm very impressed with your website! It gives the feeling of being in a quaint, little bookstore that you want to return to again and again. We are looking forward to your book debut, and we are thankful and proud to call you friends! May you be blessed as you continue to use your talent to glorify the Giver of your gifts! ~Beth Schakat

Chris and Kate, Congratulations on publishing, and looking forward to reading soon. ~Ed Bolle

Wow, you've created a great website with beautiful pictures. We can't wait to see the finished book! ~Sarah Hayden

You've created a fine website, one that points to the glory of our Lord and manifestly demonstrates the grace he gives His children. I look forward to the release of your first volume of verse. ~Roger Beal

Congratulations on your first book of verse, and we're proud of you both! ~Ralph and Angela

Hey Kate and Chris!! Ok, we're here and excited to hear about the book. Please keep us apprised! ~Dan Dodds

I am enjoying your website and look forward to future updates. Praying for God's best in the distribution of your first volume. What a blessing to many, including myself! So proud of you, Christopher and Kate! ~Michael Landry

Congratulations to Trinity Publishers of NGA, the website, and following your dreams! So proud of you guys and really, really enjoying your social media posts! ~Molly Farhangi

I am eagerly waiting for the publication of Volume One and will keep checking back here to see when it's available for purchase. I also enjoy following Trinity Publishers of NGA on Pinterest. Looking forward to sharing poems from Volume One with friends here in PA! ~Sarah

I recently had the privilege of taking a sneak peak at the first volume of poetry, and what a blessing it was! The book is beautiful, and the poems truly spoke to my heart. Thank you, Trinity Publishers of NGA, for sharing these lovely verses, and may God bless you and all those who read them. ~Dawn

Kate's tenderness of heart and genuine awareness of the world around her makes her poetry relatable to readers in every walk of life. I can hardly wait to read the first volume of her work and share with family and friends. ~JoAnn Alexander

I am really looking forward to this book of poetry from Kate's heart! It will be a privilege to read and meditate on these words as I know they will reflect her faith and trust in our wonderful Savior. ~R. Lisa Stanton

We are so looking forward to Chris and Kate's book of poems, which will inspire and give one a fresh and new appreciation for good poetry. ~William and Diana Gray

I am eagerly awaiting this first volume of poetry from my sister-in-law. Having had the privilege of hearing her poetry read at family gatherings here in Northeast Georgia, I am a first-hand witness to her talent and skill. Her poetry is reminiscent of another poet from Union County, Byron Herbert Reece, who wrote about his life, his faith, and the land he loved. Kate is a new female voice here in our mountains. I have ordered my first copy and can't wait for its arrival! ~Julie Sgambati

I've been reading Kate's poetry my whole life, and I'm very much looking forward to this new book. I'm ready to treasure her words in a new way because of the effort she put into this collection. It's exciting how her influence is growing beyond the North Georgia mountains as she not only publishes her own book but also embraces the wonderment of the internet. Kate is a jewel hidden away far too long, and I'm proud that her words will shine brightly to a greater audience. And what a lucky audience! ~Ned Alexander

I am so excited to read Chris and Kate's forthcoming book! Based on her poetry I have read in the past, I know this book will be amazing. In this busy world full of distractions, Kate's writings are a welcome respite of provoking thought and restful reading. ~Angie Chini

I can't wait for this book of poetry to come out. I have two people in mind that I want to share it with because I know it will be a real blessing to them. ~Bonnie Brownsberger

I can hardly wait to see what Kate has been writing. She is a beautiful soul, full of love and peace. ~Michelle Hernden

I have discovered this very fine poet here in the mountains of N. Georgia. Looking forward to the soon release of her publication. ~Bob Stanton